This camp is an opportunity for harp students to improve their existing musical skills and expand their knowledge of the instrument. It will include large and small harp ensembles, music theory, general topics related to the harp and guest clinicians. Participants will be mailed ensemble music to prepare ahead of time. Participants are expected to provide their own harp, and are able to leave their harp securely at the school for the week. If a participant is unable to provide their own harp, please contact Jacqueline to see if an alternative can be arranged.
