

BALTIMORE

HARP CAMP

2011

Director: Jacqueline Pollauf

The Baltimore Harp Camp is an annual summer day camp for harp students of varying ages and abilities. An opportunity for harp students to improve their existing musical skills and expand their knowledge of the instrument, the week includes large and small harp ensembles, music theory, general topics related to the harp. Founded and directed by Jacqueline Pollauf, guest clinicians from the mid-Atlantic area will also present on a variety of topics.

Participants will be receive ensemble music to prepare prior to the start of camp. Participants are able to leave their harp securely at the school for the week. If a participant is unable to provide their own harp, please contact Jacqueline to see if an alternative can be arranged. The camp will culminate in a recital, with ensemble performances as well as the opportunity to perform solo music.

Dates and times: July 18 - 22, 10 am – 2 pm daily (please bring a bag lunch each day)

Ages: 8 – 18 (suggested age range)

Fee: $150

Location: St. Paul's School, Ward Center for the Arts
11152 Falls Road Brooklandville, MD
www.stpaulsschool.org/about_sp/directions.aspx

Final Recital: Friday, July 22, Ward Center for the Arts.

Please fill out the below information. Return this portion of the form along with the fee of $150 by June 1, 2011. Make checks payable to Jacqueline Pollauf and mail to Jacqueline Pollauf, 116 Oakway Rd. Lutherville, MD 21093

Name and age of participant:

Parent/guardian name:

Address:

Home phone number:

Emergency contact and phone number:

Are you planning to leave your harp for the entire week at the Ward Center? yes / no

Current teacher:

Repertoire studied. Please list the title and composer several pieces you have recently learned so that we may have an idea of your capabilities: